Illari: Dientes de León [Primera parte] (Spanish Edition) Miguel Eduardo Valdivia Carrera

Una noche pareciera abrirse el cielo, y de éste descender una luz, y en la puerta de la casa de un corazón solitario y despiadado aparece una cesta, y en ella un ángel; uno arropado en las pieles de una niña, una criatura que ira creciendo a su lado, una de ojos verdes y piel aterciopelada, tan blanca como la leche, y él tan oscuro como el cacao, un hombre bestia en realidad, uno que se rendirá ante la ternura de aquel illari. De aquel inesperado encuentro de almas nace un amor, uno envuelto en fantasía y misterio, uno que los unirá tal vez para siempre y es que ambos, en realidad, volvieron a este mundo tan solo para amarse.

Ella es un ángel, sí, pero uno con alas de fuego y aquel ser impío y salvaje que la protege, uno con un corte en el rostro, pero con corazón de caramelo.
