My Name Is Daria Maria Larsen, Joe Garcia

Joe Garcia joins forces again with award-winning author Maria Larsen to write the sequel to "They Call Me Lola." In 2013 the Dog Writer's Association of America nominated Lola's memoir, a story of an abandoned stray and her litter of puppies, for an award of excellence in fiction based on true-life events.

"My Name is Daria" is written from the perspective of one of Lola's beloved daughters. Daria tells the charming tale of her life as an adopted stray, beginning with her birth in a lakeside den. The lucky pup is adopted, bottle-fed and properly cared for by Joe, his wife Gail and the canine members of the Garcia Family Pack.

Daria's journey is another must read for dog enthusiasts—whether you have read Lola's story or not.

Maria's memoir about the dogs she rescued from the streets as a police officer, "When It Reigns, It Pours: Dog Tales," won two awards in the memoir and animal/pets categories of the 2014 eLit Awards. Daria's e-book won third place in the animal/pet category for the eLit Awards in 2015.
