Progress & Poverty 50th Anniversary Edition; the Remedy Henry George

Millions of copies have influenced generations of people interested in political economy. This seminal work investigates the world's social and economic ills that are part of the progress of civilization. Industrial depression, unemployment, social injustice which are part of the seeming prosperity of progress. Fifty years after the first publication of "Progress and Poverty" in 1879, this special 50th Anniversary Edition was published in 1929. This edition is, with minor corrections, the same as the Fourth Edition. This volume investigates the
