The political shitstorm was the least of their worries... Pele has been home for a good while. People think he's certifiably touched in the head. Nobody believes his story about his tales from those fantastical, faraway kingdoms beyond the mountains where no one else had ever been. His brother, Paoa, is about ready to cast him out onto the street when very suddenly, all his insane stories are proved horribly right in the form of a political envoy from two of the peoples Pele had told them about. The issue is, the political shitstorm this caused is a backseat event against the approaching horde of land-hungry lizards.
