Taming a Rebel Heart: a Christian Romance Faith Austen

I know I am a rebel. I can't help it. It's who I am. Who needs God anyway?

Constantly being under the restrictive thumb of her parents, Libby Armstrong grew up wishing she had the chance to discover herself freely. She was always thought to be a troublemaker, but her hidden heart is in the right place — longing to do the right thing and follow the right path. As she struggles to meet her parents' expectations while also becoming the person she wants to be, a perfect opportunity brings her into contact with a man whose calming presence can finally change her rebellious ways.

The only problem is Jacob Hans is the counselor of the boarding school Libby attends. Despite him seeming perfect for Libby in her eyes, Jacob must keep her at arm's length, remaining professional. Libby now has to come face-to-face with her own salvation and struggles to learn acceptance and change.

Will Libby submit to the promptings of her conscience and accept salvation or will she forever be lost in a web? of rebellion? Will she discover the true love that blossoms into true faith before it's too late?
