Exciting Short Read! Sam Byrne is about to take the ultimate gamble of his life. The only problem is even if he wins--he's going to lose.

Once free of the army, Sam Byrne assumed life as a civilian would be free and easy. He was wrong. Strapped with a huge gambling debt and wanting to take care of his newly pregnant wife, his life is going in the wrong direction faster than he ever thought possible. Little does he know that a routine traffic accident that resulted in the death of mobster's son is about to change his life and his debt forever.

Reviews For Blood Money

"I love these short, bite-sized reads! This thriller is fast-paced, tightly written, and definitely drew me in from the get-go. A great-sized read for a short commute or if you want an action-packed suspense while you chill on the beach. I'll be checking out the rest of his stuff for sure!"

"A near domestic war story which will end up in mob territory. You won't be without fast heartbeats when you finish."

"Here I found a great work on fiction that I can add to the best collection of my library. The book was written with a perfect storyline. While the saying goes that you can't tell a book by the cover, I was drawn to this book due to the cover. I assure you, the content is just as awesome. All the characters were placed very neatly. I will be eagerly waiting for the next installments of this series."
