Why Didn't Someone Tell Me? The Truth About Love (Volume 1) R.J. Stanley

As young women grow up, they often find themselves facing disappointment in many areas where they had expected to find great happiness, especially when it comes to love. Two key factors seem to contribute to this experience – the world of media building up false expectations about love and marriage, and realities of married life that have gone unshared by more experienced women. By taking a candid look at the good and bad realities of love and romance, Why Didn't Someone Tell Me? The Truth About Love delves into the secret truths mom and grandma never revealed. It bursts fairy tale myths wide open to reveal reality instead of fantasy.
