The Light of Man: A classic science fiction story Demeter May

Thousands of years in the future, a delicate state of Cold War between human factions is threatened to slide into mutual annihilation, when a mysterious transport makes its way towards neighboring alien dominions. Lack of trust between humans, based on history, religion and fright trigger covert operations from both sides and threaten any sort of lasting peace.

A secret service operative and an assassin find themselves in an unlikely alliance, inexorably linked in a complex political fight for control and expansion in the sector, with alien dominions keeping watch. The prize of victory is not only their survival, but a chance to own human history.

Secret ops, aliens, psychology and mind control all blend in this story ultimately about human nature.
