All Points North Shelby R. III Lee

All Points North “For a smell and flavor of the Mississippi Delta as native as pit-roast pork barbecue ... For a guided tour of southern gentility exposed ... The circumspect lens of Shelby R Lee III's 'All Points North' delivers, . . . short story catapulting onto short story. A delicious read. ...” – Reader Review, Memphis, Tenn. Written in stream-of-consciousness style, “All Points North” by author Shelby R. Lee III is moving, often comical and sometimes achingly painful. Whatever the tone, the 13 short stories in this collection share one overriding trait: revelations on the psychological complexities of life. Yacht racing, a duck hunt, a time on jury duty, a moment of conflict resolution, a secretary with terminal hypochondria ... an assortment of complex and often humorous chapters in life are told in rich detail – this ambitious collection won two awards within six months of publish date– in “All Points North.”
