Goody Two-Shoes John Newberry

Goody Two-Shoes is the story of Margery, an orphan girl, who gets her nickname "Goody Two-Shoes" because of a pair of shoes bought for her by a kind gentleman. Having lost her mother and father at an early age, and being separated from her little brother, Margery finds purpose in life by helping those around her.

The story and its morals are simple ones, written in a simpler time, but these lessons of kindness and courtesy are just as important and relevant today.

This edition includes scanned pages from an original print of Goody Two-Shoes.
