WORSE THAN DEATH: Day One of the Zombie Apocalypse Mark Allen

AUTHOR' NOTE: This novella was originally published as "Daddy." It has now been re-released with a new title and bonus content.

USMC Scout Sniper Russell Stavin is still haunted by the tragic sin he committed in Afghanistan, but the unconditional love of his wife Abigail and five year-old daughter Britney keep the demons at bay. But then one cold autumn day he wakes up to find his family missing and the dead rising from their graves as zombies.

But even on Day One of the Zombie Apocalypse, something lurks in the shadows that is worse than death, and it has taken his loved ones prisoner to satisfy its evil hunger. Armed only with a chainsaw and an axe, Stavin will battle legions of the living dead to get his family back.

Because even in the middle of a zombie hell, you don't want to come between a daddy and his daughter.
