Knaleg: A Terraneu Novel (Book Three) Stormy McKnight

Knaleg is a science fiction romance in which following honor and duty make finding love that much easier...if you are looking in the right place. (Part Three in the Terraneu Series.)

Catherine- Given the job of investigating a shady online dating service Catherine Chambers was just happy to back in the field and useful again. Until a twist of fate lands her on a strange planet with all of the missing women she was looking for. None of whom want or need to be "found". To make matters worse, she is accused of harming one of their council members. How can she prove that she is a worthy addition to their community when the one person who could corroborate her story isn't talking?

Knaleg- As the head of security he takes the safety of his people very seriously. Working tirelessly to ensure the smooth integration of females into their previously all-male society. His established routine is suddenly and violently shattered with the arrival of Catherine. She is accused of harming a council member which in itself is bad enough, but what makes it worse is that the injured party is his brother. How can he justify his attraction to a female accused of such violence? His instincts tell him she isn't dangerous, but his heart is warning him she is a serious threat to his peace of mind.
