This book is an expose' of ministers in the Faith Movement and their heresies; In addition to their false doctrines of financial success by giving into their false ministries, some even deny that Jesus Christ is God and they teach that they are all little gods! Will you follow men and women that deny that Jesus came in the flesh as God in the flesh or would you follow the teachings of a man that wants you to believe the New Age lie that you are little gods?

Dr. Walter Martin warns, We have those savage wolves today. We have theologians in theological Seminaries and departments of religions of schools who literally chew up the flock. They chew up the people who are studying for the ministry and then they spit them out into our pulpits where they can chew us up. These are the savage wolves that come in not sparing the flock.

“Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time,” (I Jn. 2:18)

When you think of the antichrist, I'm sure that like most people, you think of the evil end time ruler that is to come. However, John says there are many antichrists. How can that be? Anti-Christ doesn't mean opposite of Christ, it means in place of Christ. Any person who puts himself or material things in the place of Christ in your life is operating in the spirit of antichrist. And as John said there are many of them already in the world! Many Christian leaders are guilty of placing financial success as a chief condition of being accepted by Jesus Christ. The Word of Faith Movement ministers teach that if Christians will give them tithes and offerings, then Jesus will make these givers rich. Often what is happening, the ministers are getting rich while the givers are who have been duped are getting poorer and poorer.

The Apostle Luke warned, “Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. Hypocrites - Someone feigning high principles. Somebody who gives a false appearance of having admirable principles, beliefs, or feelings,” (Lk. 12:1).

COVENANT OF DEATH

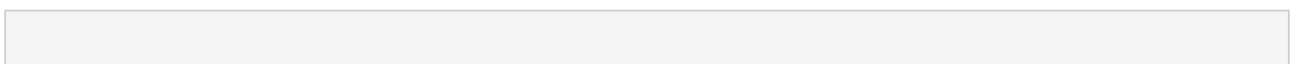

Riches - Wealth - Greed - Extreme Poverty

“No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon,” (Matt. 6:24).

Mammon-Ra was the name of the ancient Syrian god of riches and wealth. It was the Babylonian god of money and forces. Mammon-Ra, symbolized by a double headed eagle, having octopus-like tentacles, is the Egyptian god Pharaoh went down to the river each morning to worship.

MAMMON IS A WATER DEMON

The Spirit of Mammon is a powerful demon, worshipped with great pomp by Pagan Jewish Cabalist hungry and greedy for wealth and power. It's also the spirit that the world worships. Standing at it entrance is the mighty statue the Statue of Zeus (Jupiter) of Ba'al or Zeus. Apollon or Apollyon, Abaddon or Apollo, Jupiter or Zeus, depending upon whether you're Roman, Persian or Greek — Heilios, Hermes, Antiochos, Kommagene, Mammon. These are the gods of the New Age. They are summoning the old gods . . . they are not dead . . . these demonic spirits are helping to build the New World Order. The world leaders believe that they have open new pathways to God in order to build the new world. They must summon the old gods, Apollyon, Abaddon to do it.
