Great leaders have one thing in common. They are great communicators.

What can you learn about leadership and communication from a horse? More than you think! We know that communication is far more than talking and listening, words and gestures. Genuine communication requires a sincere understanding of another person's (or being's) perspective... "communication language" if you will. What if I told you that the horse's unique communication language could give you amazing insight into communicating more effectively with humans? Learn how horses perceive leadership and apply the "lessons from the horse" to your own leadership communication style and find out how to really gain the respect of the herd!
