Something About Nothing (Volume 1) Julie Seedorf

From selling her family on a popular website, to protecting an imperfect evergreen tree with five tops in her yard,(What would happen if they cut humans down for being imperfect?), author Julie Seedorf's Something About Nothing is a collection of columns by that same name that debuted in 2006. In everything that we speak to our friends and neighbors, there is something hidden deep in the recesses of our hearts -- silent, wanting to come out when we greet one another. We feel no one cares if we hurt or need a little kindness to make us smile each day, and so we spend our conversation on nothings. "How's the weather?" "How are you?" The answer is always, "Fine". We don't always answer with what is hidden below the surface. This collection of columns is full of inspiration, silliness, and heart. Laughter and dreams keep the soul alive. They are the something's needed in our soul of life.
