For those who dream of a college education and need money to make it happen--now with a CD-ROM.

More than a million copies sold.

The Scholarship Book, 12th Edition, is the first and most acclaimed guide to private-sector scholarships, grants, and loans published in America--helping countless students locate, apply for, and receive private-sector financial aid related to every major field of study.

In this new edition--complete with an expanded table of contents and an array of new scholarship sources presented for the very first time--students will find the single most comprehensive listing of private-sector awards offered by a wide range of corporations, unions, trust funds, religious and fraternal organizations, associations, and private philanthropists, all eager to provide them with the financial assistance they need to continue their education.

This invaluable resource gives students essential tips for determining which awards they qualify for, helps them write winning essays, applications, and cover letters, alerts them to scams and rip-offs, and provides useful lists of recommended websites and publications.
