Yours Truly (Happily Ever After Book 2) Jen Meyers

Heartwarming, hilarious, and hot, the Happily Ever After series is romantic comedy at its best, brimming with deep friendships and true loves.

Willow Truly doesn't need a man. Never has, never will. At least, not in the long-term. She's as keen for a roll in the sack as the next girl, but beyond that, a man's usefulness runs out quick.

A girl's got to take care of herself, Will's learned, because as soon as you start to rely on a man, he breaks your heart. She's bound and determined to never let THAT happen again, so she's sworn off love, marriage, and living happily ever after. As the writer of a snarky dating column in Du Jour magazine, she's pretty much guaranteed no man will stick around for long...and she's totally okay with that.

Unless, of course, we're talking about Josh. Her all-around favorite guy and best friend outside of The Girls, Josh is the only man Will can't date. Not if she wants to keep him in her life—and she does. More than anything.

However, to keep him, Will may have to go against everything she believes to be true and take a chance on love again. And on Josh. Because if she doesn't...Will just may break her own heart.
