Just in case it isn't hard enough being a teenager, how about heaping on the hardship by facing the sudden realization that you're gay? Toss in a little danger by virtue of being the grandchild of a notorious mobster and a pinch of venom inherited from a mercilessly cutthroat businesswoman who happens to be your great-aunt and you have a nice bubbling stew of 'what the hell'? Jordan Youngblood and Stefan Santorno can't believe their children are nearly grown and they miss the days when kissing a boo-boo fixed everything. The kids struggle with identity, trust, lust, love -- and they learn the hard way that nothing is ever just black and white. When trouble beats on the door, the Youngblood kids will prove they didn't fall too far from that dangerous family tree.
