The Mexican-American War (The United States at War Audio Classics Series)

(2 Audio Cassettes) Mexico lost one million square miles to a victorious America in the Mexican-American War (1846-1847). This conflict expanded America's borders to the Rio Grande, to the Pacific and to the 49th parallel. From this move toward empire, however, would come the seeds of America's bloodiest episode: The Civil War. The United States at War is a collection of cassette presentations that review the political, economic, and social forces that have erupted in military conflict.
