Keisha Jordan is a an up and coming fashion designer in Europe, ready to set the world on fire with her designs. As an American based out of London, Keisha always felt like an outsider, but after being away from home for so long, she has gotten accustomed to being independent and strong.

While Keisha is no stranger to competition, as she dives deeper into the fashion world, a seedy underbelly emerges, and she finds herself wondering if she is in the right business.

Antonio Bonifazio is one of the top designers in Milan. As a designer who started from nothing, and built his way to the top, he sees a lot of potential in Keisha, but wonders if she is hard enough for the tough as nails fashion world. Not one to ignore his instincts he proposes a joint venture with Keisha.

But this business relationship turns into something much more, and Keisha wonders about Antonio's true intentions. As their love story unfolds, jealous exes, bitter rivals, and sabotage further complicate things for them as they navigate this crazy little thing they call love.
