Kelly Burch had noticed the rugged and sexy Aaron Davis for three days. He had begun eating breakfast, lunch, and dinner at the diner where she worked between classes at Arizona State University. He was mysterious and mostly kept to himself, always ordering the same meal.

Kelly has always been intimidated by good looking guys. She has always been a bigger girl who is used to being resigned to the friend zone with any guy she is remotely interested in. So when the enigmatic and sexy stranger shows an interest in her and asks her out, she thinks it's a dream come true.

Aaron is an MMA fighter who is in training for his next big fight, just a month away. Kelly knows nothing about the world of Mixed Martial Arts, but she finds herself becoming more enamored with the sport—the blood, sweat, and tears that go into becoming a warrior. She is so entranced with Aaron's passion for the sport he loves and his overall passion for life, that she finds herself falling for the handsome stranger.

After her first date with Aaron, Kelly has a tire blowout on the freeway. She is stranded alone, well past midnight. She is about to call Aaron to come to her rescue when a mysterious stranger on a motorcycle stops to help her. His name is John. He is as rough around the edges as Aaron is the All American boy, but there is something so magnetic and enticing about John. He is sexy, dangerous, and mysterious—the quintessential bad boy come to life.

Kelly is floored when he expresses interest in her as well. Can Kelly handle the stress of juggling two very dominant men? Especially when these two men have a dark history together that is sure to add sparks to this love triangle in the making.

Kelly will find out that broken promises are sometimes necessary in the dangerous game of love.

Author's Note: Story contains mature language and themes, intended for adults only.
