Homecoming Homicide

Love lost, marred bond, and a sudden death...

As Bruce Hutchinson strives to lead a silent albeit lackluster life as a private investigator, things get stirred up approaching his high school reunion. Not only do his former schoolmates' current achievements seem a lot more interesting than his own, he's also faced with the possibility of coming face to face with his high-school-buddy-turned-rival, Danny Sims – who also happens to be the husband of Bruce's former love interest, Lauren. The day of the reunion arrives and things escalate to a full shock as Bruce receives a heart-wrenching news over the phone: Lauren's dead.

How does this news impact Bruce's life? Is it big enough to bring him back to the one place he's been avoiding for years now – his hometown?

Resurfaced Regrets

Old town, new love, better life...

Thanks to Anne, Bruce has settled-in nicely back in his home town, Battle Creek. The world has felt a lot better since she came to his life. They make passionate love every night and she maintains a lovely home for him during the day. Everything felt lighter for Bruce until he got a phone call from Phyllis Martin asking him to solve the disappearance of his high school friend, Mike.

Disappearances, big-time crooks, and risking Anne...

The case takes him to another thrilling investigation as his efforts to uncover Mike's disappearance leads him to discover a long-standing embezzlement scam that will not only put his life in danger, but also Anne's.

Will Bruce be able to find out why Mike disappeared all those years? Will he be able to keep Anne safe from the high-powered crooks he has crossed paths with?

Making Things Right

Clean living, still unclean streets, a partner in crime...

Fresh out of rehab, Bruce doesn't have time to enjoy his alcohol-free life as he is out to solve the death of Anne's friend, Tiffany Keller, a stripper in Battle Creek's longest running night club. She is found dead by her car; apparently due to drug overdose. Sensing foul play, he digs deeper into the case and is helped by Natahn Wolf, a local policeman who's a straight-shooter.

The scum of Battle Creek, all out war about to break loose...

Their investigation takes them deeper into the dark side of their unassuming town as they go back and forth with witnesses, suspects, and motives. When they begin to unravel the events that led to Tiffany's apparent suicide, they uncover a much deeper hole that could set-off a war between two cities.
