Welcome to Adult Literacy in Writing. While many handbooks and workbooks are available for you to study punctuation and usage, they often assume that a student wants and needs to have every rule and every exception explained. This book was written because as vintage teachers, we believe that before a student studies ALL the rules that a few basic rules are essential. This book will provide you with those basic rules. Two types of information will help you acquire this knowledge. First, a brief explanation of the concept will be given. Second, multiple exercises with their answers are available so that you may practice the concept.
