SEAL TEAM SIX: NO MORE BOOK 8: CYBER FLAME: #8 in ongoing hit series Doug Murray CFO Eric Forrest, the father of Flame's girl Kimberly, discovers an odd discrepancy in the books of one of the banks he oversees. Unable to reconcile it, he turns to Dana and Flame who send a team to Haiti to investigate. What they find stuns them: a group of hackers have been draining the funds of several developmental banks, specifically the ones organized to aid Haitian people still recovering from the devastation of the 2010 Earthquake. The team tracks the hackers to Thailand and soon finds out that they are way in over their heads as thugs and Jihadi fighters abound.

Meanwhile, Dana is living through an ordeal of her own, recovering from the pain and fear of her encounter with the odd white-haired man from Argentina. He keeps appearing to her—first in the hospital, later in her own apartment—but no one else appears to see him. She begins to doubt her own sanity...

Can Kimberly help Dana rediscover her courage, or will both of them become victims? Can the men who are stealing from the poorest people in the world be brought to justice? The international intrigue continues with the eighth installment of SEAL Team Six: No More!
