Why Mayweather is Afraid of Pacquiao: What Floyd Can Do to Regain His Courage Moxie Z Jackson

Many boxing fans have a very strong reason to believe that Floyd Mayweather Jr. may have an overwhelming fear of Manny Pacquiao.

What, specifically, could Mayweather be scared of?

Could it be Pacquiao's blinding 17 punch combinations that Mayweather might be afraid of?

Could it be Pacquiao's one punch KO power that Mayweather might be afraid of?

Could it be Pacquiao's unpredictable rhythm that Mayweather might be afraid of?

Could it be Pacquiao's left-handed stance that Mayweather might be afraid of?

Could it be Pacquiao's hyper energy that Mayweather might be afraid of?

I submit to you that the real answer may be more complicated and less obvious than any of the above.

In this highly revealing e-book (which will take you less than 18 minutes to finish reading) we will examine which of Pacquiao's abilities Mayweather may consider to be the most threatening. Then we will go through some ways by which Mayweather may be able to emotionally and psychologically deal with his fear of it.

But this is more than just a book about Mayweather. That's because the strategies that I recommend that Floyd needs to take in order to get over his widely perceived fear of Pacquiao are the same strategies that you can use to overcome some fears (of public speaking, of starting a business, of approaching someone, etc.) that you might have in your own life.
