People entering into the sacred covenant of marriage often believed an old myth that marriage is a beautiful box filled with all the things they always longed for: friendship, love, respect, support, companionship, intimacy, etc... In truth, at the beginning, marriage is an empty box where you MUST put something in first, in order for you to take something out. As the common saying goes: "There is no love in marriage, love is in the heart of people, and it is people who put love in marriage." This goes well with romance and intimacy. Couples should infuse both into the marriage. Both parties should learn the form and art of loving, giving, serving, respecting, praising and of keeping the marriage box full. If couples take out more than they have put in, the box will become empty.

Forgetting to fill the box can result to divorce, annulments and broken marriages. And these unwanted situations happen everyday to many families and relationships worldwide.

In this marriage solution guide we will cover ways to fix your marriage, discuss important key points that are crucial in maintaining the romance and vigor in a marriage, and explore necessary steps on how to address tough marital crisis and situations.

Here's a Preview Of What You Are Going To Learn In This Marriage Book:

- Making Your Marriage Work for You
- Assessing Yourself
- Radiating Positivity
- Spending Time Together to Make Your Marriage Work
- Renewing the Spark

Marriage - If you want something to last forever, you treat it differently. You SHIELD it and PROTECT it. You never abuse it. You don't expose it to the elements. You don't make it common or ordinary. If it ever becomes tarnished, you lovingly polish it until it gleams like new. It becomes SPECIAL because you have made it so, AND IT GROWS more beautiful and precious AS TIME GOES BY.
~ F. Burton Howard~

One advantage of marriage, it seems to me, is that when you fall out of love with him, or he falls out of love with you, it keeps you together until maybe you fall in again. ~Judith Viorst
