Fat Cat's Day (Fat Cat's Adventures Book 1) Lorne C Frigon

Fat Cat's Day is an imaginative, funny, and exciting early reader picture book that introduces two new lovable characters in a unique and amusing way.

Fat Cat's Day is a vibrant fiction book that is not only fun for adults to read to children, but also uses beginner level English for early readers to start reading on their own. The illustrations are bright and energetic with plenty of background graphics to keep the audience entertained even after many reads. Also click on different parts of the pictures and have fun pop up tidbits and facts that are fun for the parent reader as well.

This is the first picture book in a planned series revolving around Fat Cat and his ever present furry companion. The next couple of books center on a travel and culture theme which is alluded to in Fat Cat's Day in the pictures on the wall. Fat cat will be sent on voyages around the globe in which, as always he sleeps through, with his true adventures happening in his dreams. Fat Cat will be placed near landmarks while in his dream he dreams of the different customs and cultures of the places he visits. A great learning series.
